

Former home of agency boss

SOLD: Lodge Farm House in Draycott.

LODGE Farm House, former home of estate agent Robert Ellis, has been sold in Draycott.

Twelve years ago Robert Ellis, founder of Robert Ellis Chartered Surveyors and Estate Agents, built Lodge Farm House on the edge of Draycott village for his own use.

Mark Philpott of the firm said: "This is a fine farmhouse style property."

He went on: "We had a good number of interested parties view the property and secured a sale to a family who currently live in the West Nottingham area."
